We're Doing a New Thing! a new worshipping community in Anthem

Why might a young couple leave the stability of traditional church ministry and venture out into the unknown? We believe God is making all things new and has called us to the frontier of this work, starting by stepping out of the boat into an uncertain future. For a variety of reasons, a traditional church setting is inaccessible for some people so they may never willingly worship at a typical church. We believe God's powerful love is pursuing people everywhere not only within sanctuaries and fellowship halls so the church must step outside of its comfort zone to meet people where they are, sharing with them the powerful truth that they are loved, gifted, and called. We are excited to be joining God in this mission.
