

Questions to Discuss at Leadership Team / Presbytery

1. What information, skills development or leadership training would be most helpful regarding the ministry areas listed below? (Alternate question: what questions do you have about any of these topics?)
 - a. Promoting Congregational Evangelism – skill development for individuals, ideas for congregations, sharing the Gospel in Word through faith sharing
 - b. How to Lead through Change – skill development for pastors and Sessions on steps required to lead a congregation in changing contexts, with adaptive rather than technical processes
 - c. Moving toward Multi-Cultural Ministry – steps that encourage movement in the direction of becoming more multi-cultural as congregations, and what steps that stifle such movement
 - d. Initiating Congregational Renewal–learning to evaluate one’s changing neighborhood, demographics and ministry challenges and concrete steps to take toward discussion, planning, and action
 - e. Missional Ministry – learning the theology and specific practices that help congregations move toward building community and compassion with and for their neighbors: missional + relational = missional
 - f. Ministering to Millennials – learning the new cultural ethos of younger generations and how churches can respond in helpful ways relationally, missionally and, of course, technologically

Information you would like to hear discussed: _____

Skill development on which you would like to focus: _____

Leadership training you would like to have: _____

Questions about one or more of the topics: _____

2. Rank these in order of priority from #1 (most important) to #7 (least important) as topics the presbytery should pursue for speakers, retreats and leadership training.

- _____ Promoting Congregational Evangelism
- _____ How to Lead through Change
- _____ Moving toward Multi-Cultural Ministry
- _____ Initiating Congregational Renewal
- _____ Missional Ministry
- _____ Ministering to Millennials

3. What are three goals you personally recommend the Leadership Team set for a Presbytery Transformation Grant / Project?

