B-5.0400. Property Commission. The members of the Resources Committee shall also be elected as members of the Property Commission, with authority to make property decisions up to one million dollars ($ 1,000,000) in value, with the exception of vacant land. The Property Commission shall recommend actions on property matters of greater value, or any actions involving vacant land, to the Board of Trustees. "Vacant land" means property which has no church buildings constructed anywhere on the parcel or parcels involved.

ARTICLE VI.

COMMITTEES, TEAMS AND NETWORKS OF PRESBYTERY

PART 1. GENERAL PROVISIONS GOVERNING ALL COMMITTEES OF PRESBYTERY

The general provisions for all permanent, program and standing committees, teams and networks of the Presbytery are set forth in the Book of Order and Manual of Administrative Operations. The same provisions shall also govern special committees to the extent consistent with the charge of the special committee.

PART 2. THE PERMANENT COMMITTEES AND TEAMS OF PRESBYTERY

B-6.0200. The permanent committees of Presbytery. The permanent committees of Presbytery shall be:

- a. Operations Committee; and
- b. Resources Committee;

Their duties and responsibilities shall be set forth in the Manual of Administrative Operations.

B-6.0210. The permanent teams of Presbytery. The permanent ministry team of the Presbytery shall be Congregational Resourcing Team. The duties and responsibilities shall be set forth in the Manual of Administrative Operations.

B-6.0220. Other entities. The Presbytery may establish such other networks, teams, and committees as it finds necessary for its mission. Provisions for such entities shall be set forth in the Manual of Administrative Operations.

B-6.0220. The Nominating Process. The Operations Committee shall be responsible for nominations to Presbytery commissions, committees, teams, and other nominations as designated in the Manual of Administrative Operations. The Operations Committee may designate a subcommittee for this purpose, so long as the subcommittee is broadly representative of the Presbytery, as required by G-3.0111.

B-6.0230. The Operations Committee Serves as the Committee on Representation. The responsibilities of the Operations Committee shall comply with the Form of Government for the procedures and mechanisms for promoting and reviewing the Presbytery's commitment to inclusiveness and representation as required by Form of Government F-1.0403 and G-3.0103.

ARTICLE VII ECCLESIASTICAL RELATIONSHIPS

B-7.0100. Election of teaching elder commissioners to General Assembly and Synod.

The Operations Committee shall present names of teaching elder nominees for election as commissioners and alternates to the General Assembly and Synod, taking into consideration: (a) the teaching elder's particular qualifications to serve at General Assembly and Synod with their services in the presbytery to be given primary consideration, (b) they shall ordinarily have been a member of the presbytery for three years (c) have demonstrated consistent attendance at meetings of the presbytery and (d) actively served as a member of a presbytery commission, committee or the presbytery Leadership Team for at least one three-year term. Where there is more than one teaching elder in a particular church, only one shall be elected in any given year. Nominations from the floor for teaching elder commissioner nominees to the General Assembly shall be made at the ~~third~~ second regular scheduled presbytery meeting.

a. The names of teaching elder nominees for General Assembly commissioner shall be given to the stated clerk for distribution at the ~~third~~ second and ~~fourth~~ third regular scheduled meetings of Presbytery. The stated clerk shall also distribute at these meetings a list of all teaching elders in the Presbytery, stating the year of their ordination or reception into the Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.), the date of reception into the membership of the presbytery, their attendance at presbytery meetings for the most recent two years, and their most recent service as commissioner to General Assembly and Synod.

b. The teaching elder commissioners to General Assembly shall be elected at the ~~fourth~~ third regular scheduled presbytery meeting in the year prior to the year in which the General Assembly will be held.

c. The teaching elder commissioners to Synod shall be elected annually in the third regular scheduled presbytery meeting of the year.

B-7.0110. Election of ruling elder commissioners to General Assembly and Synod.

Ruling Elder and alternate commissioners to General Assembly and Synod shall be elected by Presbytery upon nomination by sessions of a ruling elder commissioner nominee from designated churches. In making the determination of the designated churches invited to nominate a ruling elder commissioner nominee, the Operations committee will take into consideration: (a) the date of the church's most recent representation at General Assembly and Synod by a ruling elder commissioner or teaching elder, (b) the church's representation by ruling elder delegates at meetings of Presbytery, and (c) the size of the active membership of the church. So far as possible, the Operations Committee shall take into account geographical distribution, and shall consider also the possibility of nominating staff personnel. When a teaching elder of a particular church has been elected, that church will not be represented as well by a ruling elder that year.

a. The Operations Committee shall give names of churches nominating ruling elder commissioner nominees to General Assembly, and the nominee's name from each church to the stated clerk for distribution at the ~~third~~ second regular scheduled meeting of Presbytery. The stated clerk shall also, at the ~~third~~ second regular scheduled meeting, distribute a list of all the churches in the Presbytery, the most recent times that they were represented by a ruling elder commissioner at General Assembly, and the record of attendance of their ruling elder commissioners at presbytery meetings for the most recent two-year period.

b. Nominations from the floor for additional ruling elder commissioner nominees for General Assembly shall be made at the ~~third~~ second regular scheduled meeting of Presbytery.

c. Ruling Elder commissioners and alternates to General Assembly shall be elected by Presbytery at the ~~fourth~~ third regular scheduled presbytery meeting in the year prior to the year in which the General Assembly will be held, from those ruling elder commissioner nominees placed in nomination at the previous ~~November~~ second meeting by Sessions of designated churches and/or nominated from the floor at the previous ~~November~~ second meeting.

d. The Operations Committee shall give the names of the churches nominating synod commissioners to the stated clerk for distribution at the second regular scheduled meeting of the Presbytery. The stated clerk shall also at the second regular scheduled meeting distribute a list of all the churches in Presbytery and when they were most recently represented by a ruling elder at Synod.

e. After any nominations from the floor, the churches nominating ruling elder commissioners to Synod shall be elected at the third regular scheduled presbytery meeting.

B-7.0120. Election of young adult advisory delegates to General Assembly and Synod. A Young Adult Advisory Delegate and alternate to General Assembly shall be nominated and elected at the ~~fourth~~ third regular scheduled meeting of Presbytery. A Young Adult Advisory Delegate to Synod shall be nominated and elected at the ~~third~~ second regular scheduled stated Presbytery meeting. The Presbytery Operations Committee shall present a slate of Young Adult Advisory Delegates for General Assembly and Synod at the appropriate meeting of Presbytery. These nominations shall include a brief biographical sketch or resume, or both, of each nominee, as well as endorsement by his/her Session.

B-7.0200. General provisions regarding elections for General Assembly

a. In making their determination of a ruling elder commissioner nominee sessions shall give consideration to the individual's experience in the local church, their experience and knowledge in service to the work of a presbytery, their experience as a member of a presbytery committee or the presbytery Leadership Team, their service as a ruling elder commissioner/delegate to the presbytery for a two-year period of time and their knowledge of the mission and witness of the Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.) beyond the local level.

b. The Operations Committee shall provide a form for all teaching and ruling elder nominees to submit written statements to the Committee regarding their confession of faith and knowledge of current issues before the denomination. In addition, they will be asked to answer in their written statement the following questions:

1. Describe your relationship with Jesus Christ and its effect on your life.

2. What do you believe the role of the church is in today's world and how have you been involved?

3. Why do you wish to serve as a General Assembly Commissioner?

c. All nominees must indicate availability to report to the presbytery at the meeting following General Assembly and to be available for contact with churches and presbytery committees during the years between meetings of the General Assembly.

d. The Operations Committee will prepare a list of nominees which will be submitted with the nominees' written statements with the call to the presbytery meeting at which the election will take place.

e. Each nominee will be given a maximum of three minutes to speak to their written statements. Questions of the nominees from the floor shall not be permitted.

f. The election of teaching elder commissioners, ruling elder commissioners and for a young adult advisory delegate shall be by secret ballot after the presbytery has had an opportunity to hear the nominees in person.

g. Any nominee who receives a majority of votes in the first ballot shall be elected as commissioner. Whatever number of commissioners is to be elected, that number is elected providing those with the highest number of votes receive a majority of the ballots cast. If an insufficient number receive a majority of the ballots cast, then there will be a run-off election between the next ranking candidates whose votes total at least a majority of the ballots cast. Candidates ranked lower than these are eliminated from the run-off.

h. Alternate commissioners shall be chosen from those nominees who do not receive a majority vote.

i. In the event that a presbytery meeting is not scheduled during one of the months specified in this Article, the meeting scheduled for the nearest preceding month is the applicable meeting.

ARTICLE VIII.

SPECIAL RULES
